P. Schuster. The treasurer's book shows 48 names of members who have not paid their dues for the current club year. These members are expected to do so at once, as any member who has not paid her dues by January 1, 1911, for-feits her membership, and to again become a member of the club must present her name and pay the initiation fee and annual dues. The Wednesday club day meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. W. R. Brown, was one of universal pleasure. Miss Annie Stolaroff was heard to great advantage, her playing of Chop-in's nocturne being most expressive. Miss Florence Comfort sang an "A" and "B" number, "Neapolitan Love Songs," in a manner that won many flattering comments. Mrs. S. J. Fennell gave much of interest regarding Charles Kennedy, the dramatist, and Mrs. A. W. Foster gave a scholarly interpretative synopsis of

"The Servant in the House."
Miss Edmonds of Los Angeles proved herself an adept in the art of expression by her reading of the "Scene in the Rose Garden," from "If I Were So great was the enthusiasm of her hearers that she was compelled to respond to an encore. Miss Edmonds will make El Paso her future home.

A FOUNTAIN PEN AT CHRISTMAS

This is merely a suggestion. For a man, a woman, the High School boy or girl, a fountain pen to a gift to be appreciated. Only, remember, there's no use having a fountain pen unless it's a good one. We carry the Waterman Pens, the standard brand. We have them in all sizes, both the plain pens and the handsome gold banded ones, Besides fountain pens, you will find here lots of other appropriate gifts-things in leather for both men and women, fine perfumeries handsomely boxed, shaving things, toilet articles for both men and women, fine stationery in Christmas boxes, the "Ever Ready" safety razor, post card albums, and many other acceptable gifts. Every-thing is attractively displayed with price plainly marked, so selection can be made quickly. Scott White & Co., Prescription Druggists, 204 Mills St.

One of the delightful social happenings of the week was the second of the series of bridge parties given by Mrs. A. H. Goldstein on Thursday, at which Mrs. W. W. Woods of Los Angeles was the honor guest.

Pink carnations and ferns lent their fragrance and charm to the attractive home, and the dainty refreshments were served from small tables.

The prizes were won by Mrs. Frank C. Earle and Mrs. J. F. Williams, with the consolation going to Mrs. W. D. Howe. The guest of honor received a prize, and also a handsome corsage bouquet of violets. The guest list included: Mesdames W.

W. Woods, J. F. Williams, W. B. Latta, W. W. Turney, Leila T. Moore, F. C. Earle, Ysabel Fiato, C. J. Dean. A. M. Loomis, J. A. Happer, Z. T. White, W. B. Brown, F. H. Seamon, R. F. Burges, Edward Kneezell and H. S. Potter. The last of the series will be given next Thursday.

You Can't Enjoy Christmas Unless You Have a Comfortable Corset

Bon Ton Corsets

ARE BOTH FASHIONABLE AND COMFORTABLE.

If BON TON corsets were merely made excel-lently, by skilled work people, of the finest ma-terials, they would not be so important to the woman who desires the best.

But BON TON corsets are based on the very latest ideas of modern corsetry. They form the correct foundation for the modish gowns. They create the long, flowing, lithe lines—the fash-lonable new figure so much in vogue. The inimitable style and grace of BON TON corsets, which have invariably marked them as perfect in design, material and finish, are notably expressed in the superb new models.

The "Adjusto" is especially adapted to stout figures. It is skillfully designed to mould and shape the form into graceful lines. The "Adjusto" bands, when tightened, lift the abdomen, hold it firmly, and support it comfortably. Gradually the excess flesh of hips and back is reduced and distributed equally, giving the straight back and flat hip effect. For all women obliged to stand a good deal, the "Adjusto" is absolutely without an equal.
